Numb. 814

The Daily Gazetteer.

Saturday, February 11. 1738.

N°. 822.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

IT brings Letters of the 17th ult. O. S. from Petersburg, with Advice, that two Days before the Court received an Express, with News that the Grand Vizier Abdalla is deposed, and the Kaimacan of Constantinople appointed in his room; who is said to be a Person very improper for that important Office, especially for want of Skill in military Affairs.

Letters of the 28th ult. from Dresden say, that the Count de Lovendahl, Grand Marshal of the Court of Saxony, and General Beulitz, went two Days before, by the King's Order, to the House of the Count Sulkowsky, Minister of State, and of the Cabinet, to tell him that his Majesty excused him from attending his Royal Person; but that nevertheless, in Consideration of his Services, he was willing he should retain the Title and Rank of Minister of the Cabinet, and General of the Foot, with a Pension of 6000 Crowns. After this the Counts de Prise and Bruhl, went to the House of the Count Sulkowsky to seal up his Papers, and carry them to the King. The Count Salmour de Wackerbarth, the Prince Royal's Governor, is in Conjunction with the Count de Bruhl, to have the Direction of Foreign Affairs.

They add, that Count Sulkowsky is upon this Disgrace fallen ill. For a particular Account of this, and other Saxon Ministers, see the Memoirs of the Baron de Pollnitz.

According to the freshest Advices from Paris, they have Letters from Bastia in Corsicia, with an Account that a Provincial of the Capuchin Fryars had been sent to the Malecontents by the Genoese, to engage them to submit, by promising them, 1. That the Republick would consent to their keeping their Arms. 2. That all the Bishopricks in the Island should be disposed of to Natives, except one only, which should be given to a Genoese: And 3, That the Republick would remit them two Millions of Livres to be distributed among them. But it seems that the Malecontents not only rejected these Offers, but declared at the same time that they were resolved never to submit to the Genoese Dominion. The Transport Ships and their Convoy, which are said to have arrived in Corsica from France, were still at Antibes on the 18th ult. detained by contrary Winds. The Paris Letters add, that M. de Massol, Advocate General of the Chamber of Accompts, his Wife, and the President de Novion, who were lately bit by a mad Dog, as they were at Supper, as were also three of the Domesticks, are all set out to the Sea Side, to be dipped in Salt Water; and that one Calais, a Footman, belonging to the Duke de Bourbon, who was condemn'd lately to be hang'd for a Robbery, was carrying accordingly to the Place of Execution, when a Reprieve overtook him on the way for his Transportation to the Galleys.

The last Letters from Lisbon left 102 English Merchant Ships in that Harbour, with 5 Men of War of the same Nation; 16 French Merchant Vessels; 6 Dutch, and one Dutch Man of War; 2 Maltese Ships, and one Swede.

Letters of Jan. 25. O. S. from Vienna say, that the further Examination into the Conduct of Count Seckendorf, is put off till March.

They write from Hungary, that 16,000 Turks, all regular Troops, have taken Post between Belgrade and Subaiz, and 'tis even said, that some of their Detachments have passed the Danube, and made Incursions almost to Peterwaradin; but this needs Confirmation.

The Letters of Tuesday last from the Hague say, that the States General having augmented the Salary of M. Vandermeer, their Ambassador at the Court of Spain, with 6000 Florins, partly by reason of the Dearness of Provisions in that Country, M. Van Hoey, the Dutch Ambassador in France, thinks he has as good a Right to demand the like Addition to his Appointments; but having not the like Reason to found his Plea upon, he only tells their High Mightinesses in his Letter, that for the Sake of doing Honour to the Republick, he has been obliged to spend a good Part of his own Patrimony; that several Foreign Ministers at the same Court, who are not obliged to any greater Expence than himself, have twice the Salary that he has; and in fine, that as Luxury increases in France every Day, 'tis impossible for him to support his Character there with Dignity, unless their High Mightinesses allow him an Augmentation proportionable to his present Situation.

They write from Hanover, that the Major General de Schwan, Governor of Minden near Cassel, died the 21st ult. at Hanover, in the 79th Year of his Age; after so short an Illness, that he had scarce time to dispose of his Estate; and he was buried the 27th with the usual Military Pomp, in the Church of the Garison. He declared the General de Melville, Governor of Hanover, his Executor; and Lieutenant Colonel de Schwan, who came the Day before from Lunenbourg, is his sole Heir. 'Tis said that Brigadier Damprous, Governor of Lunenbourg, is also dead, which if true, there are two Regiments thereby vacant, and a Third is like to be so by the Indisposition of the Brigadier d'Ilten.

IRELAND

Dublin, Feb. 4.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland, a Proclamation, offering a Reward for the Apprehending and Convicting the Persons concerned in robbing the Post Boy between Newry and Ardmagh.

Devonshire,

WHEREAS Complaint has been made unto us by the Deputy Post-Master-General of this Kingdom, that on Wednesday the 1st of this Instant February, in the Night Time, the Post Boy in the Road going from Newry towards Ardmagh, was robbed and wounded by Persons unknown, and the several Bags of Letters for Ardmagh, Dungannon, Omagh, Strabane, Londonderry, Monaghan, Tynan, Clogher, Newtownlimavady, Rapho, Letterkenny, and Maghrafelt; were taken from him, and carried away, which may greatly obstruct the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom: We therefore, being desirous to bring the Persons who have been guilty of the said Enormous Offence to condign Punishment, and for the more effectual preventing the like Mischiefs for the future, do, by this our Proclamation, publish and declare, that if any Person or Persons, shall on or before the 3d Day of May next, discover the Person or Persons, or any of them, who have been guilty of the said Offence, so as they or any of them shall be convicted thereof, the Person or Persons so discovering the same, shall not only have his Majesty's full and free Pardon for the same, but also have the Sum of 200 l. for the first Person so apprehended and convicted, and the Sum of 100 l. for each of the other Persons who shall be apprehended and convicted as aforesaid.

And we do hereby charge and command all his Majesty's good Subjects, to be aiding and assisting in the apprehending of the aforesaid Offenders. Given at the Council Chamber in Dublin the 3d Day of February, 1737.

Hu. Armach, Wyndham, C. Theo. Cashel, Granard, Duncannon, Ar. Meath, Tho. Carter, Ja. Reynolds, T. Pendergast, Hen. Bingham, John Rogerson, Tho. Marlay, Lu. Gardiner.

The Parliament met last Tuesday according to Adjournment, and is further adjourned to Tuesday fortnight, the 14th Instant.

The same Day some Fellows were taken up for Coining, and committed to Newgate, by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor.

Last Wednesday one Elizabeth Duffy was committed to Kilmainham, for being an Accomplice in the barbarous Murder of the Poor-house Children.

Last Thursday his Grace the Lord Lieutenant dined at the King's-Inns, with the Right Hon. and Hon. the Judges and General Officers of his Majesty's Courts of Justice. And,

Next Monday his Grace will visit our University, and dine with the Provost and Fellows.

Last Sunday died at Kilcullen in her Way to Kilkenny, Mrs. Cox, Lady to the Rev. Mr. Michael Cox of Kilkenny: She was a Lady of most extensive Virtues, and excellent Accomplishment; so that her Death will be most universally lamented in the Country where she lived, as well by all who were so happy as to be acquainted with her.

The same Night died of a Decay, at his House in Castle-street, Mr. Longbotham, formerly Cash Keeper to Mrs. Latouch and Kane; in which Office he made a handsome Fortune. He was reckoned the best Cash-keeper in Europe.

We hear that the Commencement of the Act of Grace will be from the 24th Day of June last, for any Sum not exceeding 500 l. but those who were committed any Time between the first of July, and the first of January, for any Sum not exceeding 25 l. with Costs, will be relieved.

The Royal BEAUTIFYING FLUID.

SO exceedingly valued by Ladies of Quality and all who have uſed it, for its tranſcendent Excellency in Beautifying the Face, Neck, and Hands to the moſt exquiſite Perfection poſſible, is to be had only at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-yard in the Strand.

It gives an inexpreſſible fine Air to the Features of the Face on the Spot, and a ſurpriſing Handſomneſs to the Neck and Hands, which it immediately makes exceedingly ſmooth, fine, and delicately white.

Nothing in the World can ſooner or more certainly take away all diſagreeable Redneſs, Spots, Pimples, Heats, Roughneſs, Morphew, Worms in the Face, Marks of the Small Pox, Sun-burn, or any other Diſcolouring, nor remove all Wrinkles ſo perfectly; for it quickly makes the Skin become ſo incomparably fine, clear, plump, ſoft, and beautifully fair, as to cauſe Admiration in the Beholders.

It really gives a moſt engaging reſplendent Brightneſs to the whole Countenance, and cauſes ſparkling Life, Spirit, a juvenile Bloom to reign in every Feature, and yet is nothing of Paint, but far exceeds it, by its bringing the Skin, whether of the Face, Neck, or Hands, and tho' brown, red or rough, to a natural, youthful Fairneſs, Smoothneſs, and moſt charming Delicacy, which Paint only faintly imitates; neither is this ROYAL BEAUTIFYER prepared from the leaſt Particle of Mercury, or any Thing Metaline, but is perfectly harmleſs and may be given inwardly even to Children. It has alſo a pleaſant Scent, will not ſoil the fineſt Lawn, and is very agreeable to uſe.

But theſe its admirable Properties, by which it vaſtly exceeds any Thing whatever for the like Purpoſe, have occaſioned many to imitate it under various other Names, beware therefore of ſuch Impoſitions, the true ROYAL BEAUTIFYING FLUID, that has given ſuch univerſal Satisfaction to ſo many Ladies of Diſtinction, being only to be had at Mr. Radford's Toyſhop above mentioned at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle with Directions, and no where elſe in England.

This Day is Publiſhed,

The SECOND EDITION of

THE SCHEME and CONDUCT of PROVIDENCE, from the Creation to the Coming of Meſſiah: Or, An Enquiry into the Reaſons of the Divine Diſpenſations in that Period.

By Mr. WELSTED.

In this Treatiſe, among other Things, are particularly conſider'd

The State of Man after the Fall, and till the Deluge.

The Neceſſity of the immediate Diſperſion of Mankind, and Confuſion of Languages.

The Reaſons for raiſing and ſeparating a particular People from the reſt of the World, with the ſtupendous Steps and Procedures preparatory to it.

The Nature and End of the Miracles, wrought in Egypt, as well thoſe of the Egyptian Enchanters, as thoſe of Moſes.

The general Grounds and Reaſons of the Jewiſh Rites and Inſtitutions.

The true Purport and Intendment of the Denunciation in the ſecond Commandment, or of God's viſiting the Sins of the Fathers on the Children.

The Force and Foundation of Porphyry's Objection, with reſpect to the Time of Meſſiah's Appearance.

Printed for J. Walthoe over-againſt the Royal Exchange in Cornhill. Price Two Shillings ſewed.

Of whom may be had,

I. A PLAIN METHOD of CHRISTIAN DEVOTION laid down in Diſcourſes, Meditations, and Prayers, fitted to the various Occaſions of a Religious Life. Tranſlated and Reviſed from the French of M. JURIEU, by the Rt. Rev. Dr. FLEETWOOD late Biſhop of Ely. The Twenty-firſt Edition, (printed with a much larger Character, and on better Paper, than any of the former.) Price 2 s. 6 d.

The Fame and Reputation of its Author, with the Multitude of its Editions, may recommend the Purchaſing this Book to them that otherwiſe know it not; but the good Spirit it is written withal, has made it dear and valuable to them that do; and the good Grace of God, I hope, will make it ſo conceivable to all that meet with it.

W. FLEETWOOD.

II. The whole FAITH and DUTY of a CHRISTIAN, methodically explained in the Words of Scripture.

By WILLIAM STEVENSON, D. D. Prebendary of Sarum, and Rector of Colwal in Herefordſhire. The Second Edition, With a new Preface, ſhewing, that there is more Unity of Belief among Proteſtants than among Papiſts, and a much ſafer Way to Salvation. Price bound 2 s. 6 d. or 16 s. per Dozen.

Motto to LAVER's Scheme.

Advertiſements concerning this Book.

This Maſterpiece of religious Policy was publiſhed, many Years ſince, in Latin, French, and Dutch: Mr. John Schipper, a Bookſeller at Amſterdam, bought one of them at Antwerp, among other Books, and afterwards reprinted it. The Jeſuits, being informed that he had purchaſed this Book, demanded it back from him; but he had then ſent it to Holland. One of the Society, who lived at Amſterdam, hearing it ſaid, ſoon after, to a Catholick Bookſeller, by Name Van Eyke, that Schipper was printing a Book which concerned the Jeſuits, replied, that if it was only The Rules of the Society, he ſhould not be under any Concern; but deſired he would inform himſelf what it was. Being told by the Bookſeller, that it was The Secret Inſtructions of the Society, the good Father, ſhrugging up his Shoulders, and knitting his Brow, ſaid, that he ſaw no other Remedy but denying that this Piece came from the Society. The Reverend Fathers however thought it more adviſeable to purchaſe the whole Edition, which they ſoon after did, ſome few Copies excepted; from one of theſe it was afterwards reprinted, with this Account prefixed; which is there ſaid to be taken from two Roman Catholicks, Men of Credit.
